[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., September 6.—The certificate of incorporation of the "Adjustable Coupon Corporation," with its principal office in Petersburg, was recorded in the clerk's office today. The minimum capital stock of the corporation is $50,000 and the maximum $2,500,000, divided into shares of $100 each.

The purposes of the corporation are stated to be: The purchase of certain letters patent issued by the United States to Charles Hall Davis, of Petersburg, on November 13, 1906, and of any improvements thereon; the lease of or use of the device carried by such letters patent; the manufacture and sale of blank forms and interest-bearing instruments of obligations with adjustable interest coupons attached thereto, as specified in said letters patent; the purchase, manufacture, sale, lease, use and handling in any manner, of banking, office and other devices, the carrying on of a general printing, lithographing, engraving and stationery business in all its details, etc. There are to be two classes of capital stock, known as 5 per cent. preferred and common stock—not more than one-fifth of the stock to be preferred. The preferred stock shall be preferred as to dividends and in liquidation, and the dividends on such preferred stock shall be cumulative. The net earnings of the corporation are to be used to pay, first, a dividend of 8 per cent. on the outstanding preferred stock; then dividends on outstanding common stock until 8 per cent. has been paid on the total outstanding common stock, and then to pay additional dividends on both classes without distinction or priority.

The corporation is regarded as one of the most important chartered in recent years. Its officers are: President, Chas. Hall Davis; Vice-President, W. A. Worth, Secretary and Treasurer, Paul E. Pitt. The above officers, with W. L. Young and Arthur Kyle Davis, constitute the board of directors.

Several Deaths.

Mrs. Rebecca Bland Hinton, widow of William E. Hinton, died this morning about 7 o'clock at her residence on Hinton Street, after an illness of less than a week. Mrs. Hinton was a lady of rare sweetness and gentleness of character, and was descended from the historic Blands so prominent in the annals of Southside Virginia. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Fannie Hinton, and one son, Mr. Gilbert Hinton, of Norfolk. The funeral will take place from Grace Episcopal Church to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Egbert C. Fromer, a well-known citizen of Ettrick, died about 8 o'clock this morning at his home in Ettrick. He was about forty years of age, and had been in bad health for over a year. He leaves two daughters and one son.

The funeral of Mr. Norman S. Brown, who died in New York on Wednesday, took place this afternoon from the residence of his brother, Dr. D. M. Brown on Pine Street.

Lady Dies Suddenly.

Mrs. Mary E. Powers, widow of N. T. Powers, died very suddenly of hemorrhage from the lungs about 8:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter adjoining her own residence on South Street. She was well up to the moment of the attack, and had been out during the morning and had just gathered some vegetables from the garden. Mrs. Powers was in the seventieth year of her age, and is survived by four daughters and two sons, all residents of Petersburg. One of the latter is Mr. J. T. Powers, the representative of the Home Brewing Company. The funeral will take place from St. Joseph's Catholic church at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Attempted Hold Up.

Several nights ago as Dr. W. A. Crookford, of this city, was returning from a visit to a patient out in Chesterfield county, he was halted by two negroes, who sprang from the bushes on the side of the road. One of them seized the horse and held him, while the other ordered him to hold up his hands. Instead of obeying the command, the doctor drew a pistol and opened fire on the highwaymen, causing them to take to flight.

Stabs Man to Death.

WHERE 1,000 BOOKS A DAY ARE READ

Unique in the world is a business where 1,000 printed volumes are read, line by line, each day in the year. And yet there is a concern in New York where an enormous force is employed to do just this.

A statistician has been at work and has figured out this result. First he took a New York Sun and found that it contained 10 pages with 7 columns on each page and that each column contained about 1,400 words. This made 70 columns counting advertisements. From this he found that a single copy of the paper contained approximately 98,000 words. This is as many words as an ordinary book contains. Now the concern spoken of is a press clipping bureau, and they read 1,500 papers every day. Of course some of these papers are smaller than the Sun, but the 1,500 would make at least 1,000 papers of Sun size. So the statistician, going on with his figuring, found that the force read in a single day, 98,000,000 words, which is equal to 1,000 volumes, or a pretty good sized library. The statistician stopped figuring on words, and confining himself to volumes found that the force read in the course of a single year what would be equal to 365,000 volumes.

Of course, this is not done by all clipping bureaus, but the given figures are based on the work of the largest bureau in the world, the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau in New York city.

This marvelous reading is done not only for individuals whose names get in the papers, but for every sort of business in the world. There is absolutely no business that cannot be aided by press clippings. Any person with a hobby, and author who wants to write a book, any man who is to be married, any man who wants his business increased, any man looking for a missing relative, should drop a letter addressed "Burrelle, New York," and find out what he may not know, and that is that press clippings have an absolute value to him.—Mobile Item.

GRAND JURY OF DANVILLE IS BUSY

Looking Into Alleged Violations of Income Tax—Watching the High-Liver.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., September 6.—The grand jury of the Corporation Court is now engaged in an investigation of the alleged violations of the income tax laws in this city, and some sensational indictments are expected to follow. The grand jury to-day examined the returns of the Commissioner of Revenue, and it is reported that they discovered that some of the most prominent citizens of Danville, who lived at the rate of several thousands of dollars or more per year, pay income tax on amounts considerably smaller than appearance would indicate.

About a hundred people were called before the grand jury to-day, and questioned as to their incomes, and asked to explain the difference between what they made and the returns on the revenue books. Some startling disclosures, it is said, were brought to light.

The matter was brought to the attention of the grand jury by Commonwealth's Attorney Thomas Hamlin, who urged the grand jury to do their duty regardless of where the chips might fall.

Prominent Southwest Virginia Man Dies on Anniversary of Birth

Passing of Hon. Stuart F. Lindsay
Removes Well-Known
Republican Figure.

BRISTOL, VA., September 6.—Hon. Stuart F. Lindsay, clerk of the United States Court at Abingdon, whose death occurred here Wednesday last, was fifty-one years old on the day of his death. He was one of the most widely-known men in Southwest Virginia, and one of the most prominent figures in the Republican party. He served his party as an elector in the national campaigns of 1888 and 1892. He had been a delegate to several national conventions, and was a member of the convention that nominated William McKinley for President in the city of Philadelphia. His childhood was spent at Bridgewater, where he was born, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lindsay, who still reside at Bridgewater. After he had received his education at the University of Virginia, he began the practice of law at Harrisonburg. From that town he came to Bristol seventeen years ago. He married a daughter of the late I. C. Fowler, who was at that time clerk of the United States court at Abingdon, and who made Mr. Lindsay his deputy, in which capacity he served thirteen years. Mr. Lindsay also served at one time as supervisor of the Federal census in Virginia, receiving this appointment in 1880. He served for many years as secretary in the State of Virginia for the American Protective League.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife and two daughters and one brother, Dr. Charles T. Lindsay, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Lindsay was appointed clerk of the United States court in January, 1905, soon after the death of I. C. Fowler, who had been clerk for many years.

Mr. Lindsay was of Scotch-English descent, and was in the most eminent sense of the term, worthy of his worthy ancestry.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE IN GRAVELLY CASE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., September 6.—The jury in the case of George D. Gravelly, charged with felonious assault on Samuel G. Smith, failed to reach a verdict and were discharged by Judge A. M. Allen at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The case went to the jury at about 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The jury was divided from a term of one to three years in the penitentiary. Gravelly was allowed bail in the sum of $2,000, the amount allowed him shortly after the shooting occurred. The case will not probably come up again until the next criminal term of court in December.

COMPLEX SITUATION IN TAZEWELL COUNTY

Hot Contest Will Be Made for State Senator—Dark Horses Looked For.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NOTICE TAZEWELL, VA., September 6.—The political pot in this senatorial district is boiling over, speaking politically. The fight for the Republican nomination for the Senate from this district promises to be the warmest yet held in Tazewell county, which has chosen the Senator from this district for the past twenty-five years, has two candidates in the field for the nomination, with a prospect of a darkhorse or two showing up later. The present representative in the Legislature from Tazewell, is an avowed candidate for the nomination. R. E. Chase, of Dickenson county, is another. R. Walter Dickenson, the incumbent, was a candidate for the nomination until to-day, when a letter is said to have been received here by a prominent Republican from Dickenson withdrawing from the race. The greatest surprise of all occurred in Buchanan county yesterday, when the Republicans of the county instructed for T. C. Bowen, Commonwealth's attorney of Tazewell and a brother-in-law of J. P. Royall, for the Senate. The impression now is that there is a "ringer in the woodpile," and that either Bowen or some other dark-

WELL-DIGGER HAS TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE FROM CAVE-IN

BOYDTON, VA., September 6.—Henry Roberts (colored), a well-digger, had a terrible experience on Wednesday night, which seems a miraculous escape from instant death. He was at a store, near Taylor's Ferry, on Roanoke River, six miles from this place, cleaning out a well, when about 6 o'clock in the afternoon the well caved in upon him. The well was about forty-five feet deep. The alarm was given, when the neighbors gathered and the rescue began at once. The rescuing party worked all night to save the entombed man, and about half-past 7 the next morning they brought him out alive, and he went to his home.

BIG FOLKS CHASE DEER; PICKANINNY KILLS IT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., September 6.—The first deer of the season was killed to-day on the edge of the Dismal Swamp. A big buck was being pursued by such Nimrod as Judge R. H. Rawles, former Councilman Robert R. Allen, and Thomas Old, with a trained pack. The buck finally disturbed a small negro boy, who was fishing for pike in Washington Ditch, and who had a long, old squirrel gun. Angered at the interruption, the boy put his piece up and killed the deer.
